

Optical Mouse Pad

Improves optical and trackball mouse performance

Model
475167

Helps improve optical mouse performance.

The MANHATTAN Optical Mouse Pad features an embedded pattern that helps optimize beam detection for definitive mouse pointer location and minimized cursor fade or jitter. Ideal for everyday use in the home or office, its special surface helps graphic designers, digital art and photography enthusiasts, CAD/CAM operators and other users get the most from modern, high-resolution optical mice. The durable, natural rubber layer provides a non-slip grip that protects desktops from scratches and excessive wear. Its low-friction surface provides smooth movement for comfortable, long use with less effort.

Lifetime Warranty

Strict manufacturing standards ensure the highest quality in all INTELLINET NETWORK SOLUTIONS products. All items carry a full Lifetime Warranty — the strongest quality commitment anyone can make.
